

Contributions are invited from Australia and overseas for publication in the

OHAA Journal No. 32, 2010
Islands of Memory (Revisited)
Navigating Personal and Public History

Contributions are invited in the following 3 categories:

A Articles on the following themes (limit: 5,500 words):

- Papers addressing the themes of the OHAA's Biennial National Conference in Launceston in September 2009, Islands of Memory
- Ethical, methodological, legal and technology challenges being met in the practice, collection and usage of oral history both in Australia and abroad
- Critiques/analyses of strategies and protocols in projects, the perceived value and meanings attributed by oral historians to their work, or the way in which projects and agencies handle their involvement

B Project reports: articles describing specific projects, the information gained through them, and principal outcomes or practice issues identified in the process (limit: 4,000 words)

C Reviews of books and other publications in Australia or elsewhere that are of interest to the oral history community (limit: 1,500 words). These may include reviews of static or internet-available exhibitions, or any projects presented for a public audience

Photographs, drawings and other illustrations are particularly welcome, and may be offered for any of the above categories of contribution.

Deadline for submissions: 1 April 2010

Peer Review

If requested by authors, papers offered for publication in the OHAA Journal may be submitted to the OHAA Editorial Board for peer review.

However, note these important points:

- Papers for peer review must show a high standard of scholarship, and reflect a sound appreciation of current and historical issues on the topics discussed
- Papers for peer review may be submitted at any time; however, if not received by the Editorial Board by 31 December 2009, they may not be processed in time for publication in the 2010 issue of the Journal; furthermore, regardless of when offers are forwarded to the Board, the review process may not necessarily be completed in time for publication in the next available Journal
- Before being submitted for peer review, papers will first be assessed for suitability by the OHAA Editorial Board, and authors will be advised of the outcome

Papers for peer review should be forwarded in the first instance to:

Dr Jan Gothard
OHAA Editorial Board
Email: J.Gothard@murdoch.edu.au

All submissions must conform to the requirements detailed in the 'Information for Contributors to OHAA Journal' document, which is available on the OHAA web-site: <http://www.ohaa.net.au>
